Guidelines issued to GSM Operators

1369. SHRI RAJU PARMAR: Will the Minister of COMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY be pleased to state:

(a) whether TRAI have issued some guidelines to GSM operators who are misleading public with different tariff plans;

(b) if so, the details in this regard;

(c) whether Government are aware that Airtel have recently issued an advertisement providing roaming facility without any security deposit; and

(d) if so, the reasons for not returning the security deposits of regular subscribers, deposited with Airtel?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY (DR. SHAKEEL AHMAD): (a) and (b) Sir, Telecom Regulatory Authority of India (TRAI) on 16th September, 2005 has directed all telecom service providers that no tariff plan shall be offered, presented, marketed or advertised in a manner that is likely to mislead the subscribers and that all monthly fixed recurring charges which are compulsory for a subscriber under any given plan shall be shown under one head.

(c) and (d) Sir, the tariff for mobile services are forborne by TRAI. As per M/s Bharti (Airtel) they have been doing roaming promotions at various Circles from time to time, wherein they offer customers the opportunity to roam within Airtel Network by waiving the security deposits and the special prices/discounts are offered by them to the customers for buying their products/services during the period of promotional campaign and such benefits are only extended to those customer, who purchase the product/ services during that period, irrespective of whether the customer is new or the existing one.
